

Green or Non-Sanctioned Class Rules/Requirements

Class	Ownership/license Requirements	NRHA membership Required	TNRHA membership Required	Show rules Use of hands	Show rules Lead change
+TNRHA Green Reiner 1	None	No	No	May use 1 or 2 hands at any time throughout the pattern*	May use a stop to change, walk to change, trot to change, or a flying change **
+NRHA Green Rider 1	None	Yes—minimum of associate membership	No	May use 1 or 2 hands at any time throughout the pattern *	May use a stop to change, walk to change, trot to change, or a flying change **
+NRHA Green Rider 2	None	Yes—minimum of associate membership	No	May use 1 or 2 hands at any time throughout the pattern	May use a stop to change, walk to change, trot to change, or a flying change **
TNRHA Green Youth	None	No	No	May use 1 or 2 hands at any time throughout the pattern *	May use a stop to change, walk to change, trot to change, or a flying change **
TNRHA Green Reiner 2	None	No	No	Must use 1 or two hands consistently throughout the pattern	Must execute a flying lead change

Green Horse	None	No	No	Must use 1 or 1 hands consistently throughout the pattern May use any legal bit including snaffle or bosal	Must execute a flying lead change
Ladies/Men	None	No	No	This class uses regular NRHA patterns and all NRHA rules apply.

All classes use standard NRHA patterns and rules except as noted above.

+These classes run concurrently.

* The phrase “at any time” is taken directly from the NRHA handbook. It has been interpreted to show management to mean the rider may switch from 1 to 2 hands or from 2 hands to 1 at any time in the pattern.

 The lead change may be accomplished in any of the ways listed without penalty.

Membership in TNRHA is not required to participate in any of the shows. However, in order to be eligible for year end awards, both the rider and at least 1 owner must be members of TNRHA.

Eligibility:

NRHA Green Rider: Rider may not have more than $100 NRHA earnings prior to Jan. 1 and must be eligible to attain non pro status.

TNRHA Green Reiner: Rider may not have any NRHA earnings prior to Jan. 1.

TNRHA Green Youth: Rider may not have more that 10 NRHA youth points.

Green Horse: Eligibility is based on the horse—may not have any NRHA earnings prior to Jan. 1.

Ladies/Men: open to any rider; there are no modifications to rules or patterns.